3. Boat on a Bay

C F C F G C A mi

Wake up, sleepyhead, kick off your covers and get out of bed

F G C A mi D7 G

Let's go paddlin' like a duck, the canoe is already on the truck

C F C

Maybe there'll be a seal out there

F G C A mi

Pokin' his head out of the water so he can breathe some air

F G C A mi

I like his whiskers and his shiny black hair

D7 G

Lookin' just like my dog

F C E7 A mi

On a bright, blue mornin', whaddya say

F C G

Want to paddle away in a boat on a bay

F C E7 A mi

Good time sunshine, won't you come our way

F G F C

On a Saturday in a boat on a bay

C F C F G C Ami

Geese are flyin' and the mist is rising, beautiful spirit of the bay

F G C A mi D7 G

Carry our boat, keep us afloat, while we pad-pad-paddle away

C F C

Under the water are the jellyfish,

F G C A mi

Like a big basketball or a big flat dish

F G C A mi

Try not to hit 'em as you paddle along

D7 G

Singin' our happy day song

F C E7 A mi

On a bright, blue mornin', whaddya say

A E A

When I look at you I see long legs

D E A D A

And I see that you're missing some teeth

A E A

When I look at me I see brown hair

D E

That falls down straight

A E A D

When I look at me I see a nice round belly

A E A D A

And whenever I laugh it shakes

D A

Oh I see the difference, oh I see the difference,

B mi E

But there's nothing wrong

A D A D

I think we're fine and you don't mind

A E A D

And we all belong in our world

A E A

And we all belong

A E A

When I look at you I see black eyes

D E

that tilt in an upward way

A E A

And you have the shiniest black hair

D E A D A

But it sometimes gets in your way

A E A

When I look at you I see brown skin

D E

And fuzzy, curly hair

A E A D

When I look at you I see a nice big smile

D E A D A

That makes me glad you're here

And we all belong

8. When Fruit Was King

C G F C

I rode my horse.....out of the city

A mi F C G

I rode my horse as far as I could go in to the forest

A mi F A mi F

Looking for the land.....where people lend a hand

C G C

Where the honey flows.....and the fruit tree grows

C F C

And in the Spring.....I found a valley

F C

Where the trees were filled with flowers

F C F

Busy working bees made honey from the flowers on the trees

C G

And the flowers on the trees

G C F C F C F C G

Made fruit from the pollen on the bees

C G C

Life was good when Fruit Was King

A mi F C

Peaches and Cherries.....there were berries in the Spring

A mi F A mi F

We used to love fruit.....more than anything

C G C

So life was good.....when Fruit Was King

10. Cowboy Lullaby

E B7

Desert silver moon beneath the pale moonlight

B7 E

Coyotes yappin' lazy on the hill

A E B7 E

Sleepy winks of light along the far skyline

F# B7 B7 augmented

Time for milling cattle to be still

E B7 E

So...now...the lightning's far away

A E

The coyotes nothing skeery

F# B7 B7 augmented

Just singing to his dearie

E B7 E

Yay-Haa tomorrow holiday

A E B7 E

So settle down ye cattle 'till the morning

E B7

Nothing out there on the plains that you folks need

B7 E

Nothing there that seems to catch your eye

A E B7 E

Still you gotta watch 'em or they'll all stampede

F# B7 B7 augmented

Plunging down some 'rroyo bank to die

E B7 E

So...now...the lightning's far away

A E

The coyotes nothing skeery

F# B7 B7 augmented

Just singing to his dearie

E B7 E

Yay-Haa tomorrow holiday

A E B7 E

So settle down ye cattle 'till the morning
